To the attention of UNITWIN/UNESCO Chairs Programme:

I write to express the support of the Canada Excellence Research Chair in Migration and Integration for the renewal of the UNESCO Chair on Migration, Development and Human rights of the Universidad Autónoma de Zacatecas coordinated by Dr. Raúl Delgado Wise.

CERC Migration is a multi-faceted and internationally recognized research program that works to fundamentally transform knowledge creation, foster global collaborations, and impact policy and practice. The program's research aims are to produce innovative and usable knowledge on the links between migration and post-migration processes, forced and voluntary mobility, internal and international migration, and the role of countries of origin and transit. Dr. Delgado Wise sits on our International Advisory Board and collaborates on various activities that are instrumental to our ongoing progress.

The activities of the UNESCO Chair on Migration, Development and Human rights and of Dr. Delgado Wise are of special relevance to our research program and we hope to continue our cooperation and mutual benefit through the renewal of this Chair and its Chairholder.

Sincerely,

Professor Anna Triandafyllidou
