To the attention of,
UNITWIN/UNESCO Chairs Programme

This letter serves to express our total and unconditional support for the continuity of the UNITWIN Program/ UNESCO Chair on Migration, Development and Human Rights of the Autonomous University of Zacatecas, coordinated by Dr. Raúl Delgado Wise.

Our Institution has maintained collaborative relationships in various aspects such as publications, conferences, seminars, talks, articulated to fundamental problems in the Central American region, as well as the constitution of an international network of researchers on migration and development that has facilitated the exchange of ideas and reflections that have contributed to the construction of knowledge on these crucial issues for that troubled region.

The renewal of this Chair, under the leadership of Dr. Raúl Delgado, is essential in these times, when migration and human rights are of vital importance on the international agenda and for the region, with high levels of emigration and refugee applications in Mexico.

Best regards
